Kills To Stop The Fiend.

The worst foe for 12 years of John Deye, of Gladwin, Mich., was a running ulcer. He paid doctors over 400, 00 without benefit. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve killed the ulcer and cured him. Cures Fever-Sores, Boils, Felons, Eczema, Salt Rheum. Infallible for Piles, Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Corns. 25c at Sunnyside Drug Company.

We want your Cash business and will make prices to get it, at Earickson & Co's.

There isn't anything so annoying or so painful nor is there anything quite so hard to get rid of as piles. Manzan, the great pile remedy, is the best you can use, for it directly reaches the seat of the trouble and at once relieves and soothes the pain. It is applied by means of a tube with nozzle attached. Sold by Sunnyside Drug Co.

The court of appeals of the District of Columbia, granted on Friday, a stay until November 29, for issuance of the mandate sending president Gompers, secretary Morrison and vice president Mitchell of the American Federation of Labor to jail for contempt of court.

Chief Justice Sheppard said if the labor leaders had filed a petition for certiorari by November 29, the day on which the supreme court of the United States reconvenes, a further stay may be granted until the higher tribunal passes on the appeal.

The Child as an Asset.

There is undoubtedly a very grave problem connected with the birth rate. The church in past times furnished a religious motive for large families, and this tended to counteract the natural tendency of the birth rate to decline from economic causes as the period of infancy came to be prolonged in an advancing civilization, says a writer in the Springfield (Mass.) Republican. If the religious motive be destroyed, the economic forces making for fewer children must enjoy freer scope, and as the cost of living rises and the financial burden of rearing and educating children through a long series of years becomes heavier for the average parent to bear the scare over race suicide is likely to be the more pronounced. Making the child, however, once more a pecuniary asset of the parents at a tender age would be suicidal to civilization itself.

Such a Mean Trick.

"Come home with me to dinner to night, Gormley."
"Delighted!"
"I want you to hear my youngest daughter play the piano."
"By Jove, I'm awfully sorry, old chap, but I have forgotten a most important engagement. Some other night, dear boy."
"Sorry about the engagement, Gormley. The fact is I have neither a youngest daughter nor a piano."

Hard Lines.

"I could perfect my machine if I could get anybody to believe in me."
"Yet you are undoubtedly a genius."
"That's just the trouble. Everybody thinks it isn't safe to trust a genius with money."

To Drive Dull Care Away.

What! dull, when you do not know what gives its loveliness of form to the lily, its depth of color to the violet, its fragrance to the rose; when you do not know in what consists the venom of the adder, any more than you can imitate the glad movements of the dove. What! dull, when earth, air and water are all alike mysteries to you, and when as you stretch out your hand you do not touch anything the properties of which you have mastered; while all the time nature is inviting you to talk earnestly with her, to subdue her and to be blessed by her! Go away, man! learn something, do something, understand something, and let me hear no more of your dullness!—Sir Arthur Helps.

Lived 152 Years.

Wm. Parr—England's oldest man—married the third time at 120, worked in the fields till 132 and lived 20 years longer. People should be youthful at 80. James Wright, of Spurlock, Ky., shows how to remain young. "I feel just like a 16-year-old," he writes, "after taking six bottles of Electric Bitters. For thirty years kidney trouble made life a burden, but the first bottle of this wonderful medicine convinced me I had found the greatest cure on earth." They're a godsend to weak, sickly run-down or old people. Try them. 50c at Sunnyside Drug Co.

Up-to-Date Meaning of Investment, Margin Trading, Gambling and Sure Thing.

If a man buys $10,000 worth of bonds, pays the money for them, locks them up in his safe-deposit box and waits for the interest, that is making an investment, says Lippincott's Magazine.

If he orders $10,000 worth of bonds bought for his account, puts up $1,000 as collateral and then sits around for the bonds to go up, that is trading on a margin.

If he meets a pretty girl, falls in love with her, finds out that she has $1,000,000 in her own right, gets witnesses to prove that she has a fine disposition and is a good housekeeper; in short, gathers all the evidence beforehand that she will make an ideal wife, why, that is gambling.

If he enters politics from disinterested motives, sees a rotten condition, makes up his mind to reform it, makes no compromises with anybody, stands on his merit, fights an honest fight, wins, puts his reform through and then sits around and waits to see it become a permanent one—that's speculation.

If he marries a poor girl and she dies and leaves him with four children, and he marries another poor girl and she dies and leaves him with four children, and he marries another poor girl and she dies and leaves him with four children, and then the children grow up and he calls them together in his old age and says: "Don't worry, boys and girls! When I was young I was cute enough to save up some cash so that I could take care of myself all right without calling on you. Now, I don't need any of you, so you can all run right along and be good"—that's a sure thing.

NO CHANCE FOR HIM TO REST

Overworked Farm Servant Wouldn't Believe in the Possibility, Even in Heaven.

Not long since, in a village in the north of Scotland, the parish minister meeting a farm servant who is a member of his flock, the following conversation ensued:

Parish Minister—Well, John, and how are things doing with you? I hope you are keeping well.

Farm Servant—Hech, sir, it's hard work I have to do; nae rest from morn till night; work an' work an' no' a minute's peace for me.

Parish Minister—Well, John, we must all do our share in the work of this world. Remember, it is only the preparation for a better world, where there will be no more work to be done.

Farm Servant—Weel, sir, that may be for the likes o' you; but I'm no sure that there will be naething for me to do in the other world. It will be the same thing there, and I'll be "John, clean the sun; John, han' the moon; John, light the stars, and so on. I've nae doubt they'll find something for me to do, unlucky man that I am.

Four Reasons Why A National Bank Is Safe

1st. The U. S. Government is, in a sense, a silent partner, in the conduct of every National Bank.

In granting a charter to a bank it makes special inquiry as to the character and financial standing of the applicants.

Twice a year, or oftener, it sends an examiner, who makes an examination of all records and business methods employed, reporting any irregularities to the Controller of Currency.

2nd. The U. S. Government keeps a watchful, but friendly eye on all National Banks.

It requires each National Bank to make a sworn statement of its condition, five times in a year, and to publish such reports in the local newspaper.

It requires the Board of Directors to perform its duties, and to have a knowledge of the manner in which the business is being conducted.

3rd. The U. S. Government forbids National Banks to own any real estate, except its own building.

It does not allow National Banks to loan their money on real estate.

It does not allow a National Bank to loan more than ten per cent of its capital stock and surplus to any one borrower.

It holds each stockholder responsible for an additional amount equal to the stock owned, in case of any irregularities or shortage.

4th. The U. S. Government requires a National Bank to secure its currency circulation by purchasing government bonds and depositing same with the U. S. Treasurer.

It requires the National Bank to maintain at all times a cash reserve equal to 25 per cent of its deposits.

It does not allow this legal reserve to be re-deposited with other than National Banks.

Women's Newspapers in China.
"The Strong Man of China" was a woman—the late dowager empress. Though the country is behind hand in many ways, it is well to the fore in the matter of women's daily papers, of which it has a large number. There are five in Shanghai, four in Canton, and hardly any city is without its women's daily press. Generally these papers are produced solely by women.

Making the Best of Life.
Comparatively few men know how to live. The man who has no system in his life, who is regulated by no definite principle and proposes to himself no great and honorable end is not likely to show a satisfactory result. Reflect on the vast possibilities of your life—of honor, usefulness and happiness. Is your life as intelligent, as happy, as useful as you might have it?—Home Notes.

What has happened to the committee appointed by the Commercial Club to take steps to have a cement sidewalk from the depot to Sumner avenue.

Who has obstructed the good start? How many of our business men have refused to go into the deal and who are they? How many have agreed to have the sidewalk constructed in front of their premises? Let some one answer. We have a very reasonable offer from the contractors and should accept it at once.
